TUESDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 4.

Foreign Policy of the United States. We quote the following from the Baltimore

"The successive developments of Democracy, as they occur from time to time in our country, generally take place in Tammany Hall. It was there that Locofocoism received its name, and was recognised as the genuine growth of Democracy. At a recent meeting of the party in that famous hall, it was unanimously resolved, among other things, that in 1852 the Democracy will again enter the field, re-affirming the principles which have secured the triumphs of the past, and proclaiming, for the future gui-dance of our Federal Government, the fixed and unalterable purpose of these United States to adhere no longer to the dogmas of neutrality in our FOREIGN policy, while the monarchies of Europe are forming alliances and conspiring to exterminate republicanism from the Old · World, and to circumscribe and impede, on the continents of North and South America the progress of republican institutions and 'governments.'

"We note this announcement as one of the signs of the times. There is a great future before us, and what it is to disclose hereafter who can tell? The principle here quoted, as avowed in Tammany Hall, will probably find a place in the records of the Baltimore Convention to meet next Spring."

The subject here introduced is worthy the most serious reflection of every citizen. It may not prove, as the American appears to think, that the policy indicated will receive the sanction of the national Democratic convention; but the suggestion of the possibility renders it proper that every citizen should ponder well upon it. The temptation to swerve from our accustomed policy is often strong; but the usage that has been found wise and safe, and that is authorized by the counsels of Washington-that has prepared and preserved a safe refuge for all the oppressed of the earth-should not be departed from for "slight and transient causes." We love the cause of true republicanism; we believe all who oppose it are wrongdoers; and we believe that the propagandists of monarchy cause, this is precisely the point of time at should be met and resisted, but not by a young nation that has not certainly the power to succeed, and in whose overthrow or discomfiture the cause of human progress may be for years or centuries retarded. THE EXAMPLE OF OUR success is to be the light of other climes, and to it even princes and the satellites around them

Gambling.

We learn from the Cincinnati Gazette that the society organized for the suppression of gambling in that city have employed a trustworthy person to ascertain the number of coffeehouses, card-rooms, rondo, keono, billiard, faro. and bagatelle saloons that now exist within the corporate limits. Have we not some good citizens of Washington who will undertake a like duty here? The gambling establishments in this city are very numerous, as are the gamblers by whom they are sustained. Does it behoove our citizens to encourage or protect these traps for their sons and the guests who sojourn amongst us? That men are able, enlightened, and honorable, as are a vast number of those who pass much of their time here, is no security against the machinations of these professors of the art of gambling. We have, in our day, seen a highly gifted man, who was deemed worthy of representing a district of his State, put to very considerable trouble to obtain a loan to carry him to his home at the end of a session, and immediately after being decoyed into a well-known establishment on the Avenue, and fleeced of several hundred energetic attempt is being made to blight the dollars; and we have been assured by a number fame of this great man, and to turn the popular of our citizens that parallel cases are by no mind in this country against him. If all is true means unfrequent. It is very true that such that is said of him, he is a very ignorant, arrogentlemen should be impervious to the practice gant, stupid old fool, and can be nothing elseof such arts; but it is equally true that it is and this we do not believe. It will be well for unbecoming in the citizens of Washington to the American people to defer judgment in the permit their being led into temptation, while premises. Some of the charges against him are they have the power to control the matter. If from impure sources; and almost all the atand, as not a few believe, of intoxicating drinks, lumns of Old Hunker and old-fogie newspapers the right to suppress gambling must be equally that do not love republican progress, and fear apparent. But the day has gone by in which Austria. Would our Executive like to have a this might be argued. Few things are now pretext for slighting Kossuth, and thus keeping on deemed wrong which a people will deliberately good terms with certain Ambassadors? Should this lead to a cessation of the efforts of the association, concert last night, the Light Infantry Band, we shall much regret it, and every lover of

So general, indeed, is this recommendation, that we think his excellency the President of the United States would but act in conformity with the wishes of the American people in recommending that this day be observed by the entire nation. South Carolina forms the only exception in the designation of the day, and there can be no doubt of her acceding to the general desire for a concert of action.

In the Councils of our city, last evening, the following was adopted:

"Whereas we recognise with grateful hearts the mercies of a kind and beneficent Providence, by which the blessings of life, health, and every necessary comfort have been bestowed upon us, and feeling the solemn obligation as a Christian community of returning our heartfelt thanks to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe for these inestimable blessings: therefore—

"Resolved, That the Mayor be, and he is hereby, requested to set apart for that purpose, and by public proclamation, the twenty-seventh day of the present month, that we may unite with our fellow-citizens of this happy Union who have appointed that day for the purpose of of-fering up their tributes of praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God."

MINISTER TO FRANCE.—We are informed by the Republic of this morning that the statement circulating in the newspapers that Mr. Rives has returned, or is expected to return, or has been recalled, from France, is without foundation in fact. Without knowing who his successor is to be, we shall at any time regret the recall of Mr. R., for a more accomplished gentleman, statesman and diplomatist could not be nominated, and his equal could with difficulty be found. Moreover, the political portents are that interesting scenes will ere long be enacted in France, and throughout Europe; and it behooves the American nation to be represented at the great courts of that continent by men of courageous firmness, enlarged and statesmanlike views, and great experience. Unless for good which changes should not be made.

[From the Savannah Republican, November 1.] Consul Owen.

We received by the brig Gulnare, at Charleson, the subjoined note from Mr. Owen. We comply with what we suppose to be his wish (its publication) with pleasure, and we doubt not the public will accord to him the favor h asks:

HAVANA, October 20, 1851.

To the Editors of the Savannah Republican: GENTLEMEN: I have no official information of my recall, but the fact is announced in the papers of New Orleans and New York. I must request that you will do me the favor to ask that the public shall not judge me till they shall hear me fully. I ask nothing from their mercy but I have a right to justice.

Very respectfully, &c.,
A. F. Owen.

Let Mr. Owen not be judged by the public till heard fully. The request is reasonable, and both mercy and justice unite in demanding a compliance with it. The sentiments of horror and indignation have been spontaneously expressed by the American people at the offences of which he is alleged to be guilty: now let these feelings be silenced as respects the accused. and let every American feel that he is a juror and judge in an important trial. It may be that the result will involve the censure of our national Executive, and not Mr. Owen; or it may be that they will both fall under condemnation. Let justice be done!

Florida Claims.

The Boston Bee, of the 31st ult., contains Government the 27th day of this month has a leading editorial on the subject of the Florida supporting with zeal the pretensions of the Great Expounder of the Constitution for the Presiupon which it treats is so fully explained, and the views taken are so entirely in accordance with our own convictions of the merits of these claims, that we have concluded to transfer the article to our columns. It will be found on our

It is a source of gratification to us that the course which we have taken in regard to these course which we have taken in regard to these claims has been responded to by many of the four $3.37. Corn meal $3.37. Sales of 2000 bus. leading and influential journals of the country. Genesee wheat at 96c., and 2500 bus. Canadian white at The National Intelligencer, the Union, and the Southern Press, of this city, have all contained able and earnest articles in support of the 83/c. Florida claims, and in unison with our own expressed sentiments. These favorable opinions are not confined to the press of Washington. Those ably and judiciously conducted papers, the New York Journal of Commerce, Courier and Enquirer, the Savannah Georgian, and many other journals of standing in different sections of the Union, have advocated with earnestness the prompt payment of these just demands upon the Government.

The distinguished gentleman who now fills the exalted station of Chief Magistrate of the United States is esteemed by his fellow-citizens, rrespective of party, for his profound sense of the eternal and immutable principles of justice. We ourselves entertain no doubt that his anxious desire is to administer the Government fairly-justly; with an eye single to the welfare of the Government, and for the honor and credit of republican institutions. President Fillmore is not only a lover of justice, but he enjoys the reputation of being a sound lawyer, and a clearsighted, discriminating administrative officer. He can readily distinguish - discriminate - between claims of fraudulent, or even doubtful character, and the obligations of the Government, just in themselves, provided for by trenty, sanctioned by judicial decrees, and the funds for their payment appropriated by Congressional legislation. The eminent and learned Lord Mansfield was a devotee of justice. His motto, "fiat justitia ruat cælum," was never tarnished. It has been approved and admired by enlightened rulers, jurists, legislators, statesmen, and men of virtue, humble or exalted, in every part of Christendom. In regard to the Florida claims, justice-justice will come at last, however tardy. The majesty, the supremacy, the sanctity of the laws will be maintained. The President will " take care that the laws are faithfully executed."

This subject grows upon our hands, but what we have said must suffice for the present. We will close by cordially adopting the language of the present able Attorney General, who, as Acting Secretary of State, in a recent letter to the United States Attorney for the northern district of New York, says:

"The supremacy of the laws must be main-ained, at every hazard and at any sacrifice. Men whose sworn duty it is to execute them, must be protected and sustained in the discharge of

And the Mayor is authorized to rent a suitable room in the First Ward to be used as a watch-house by the police and Auxiliary Guard in that part of the city .-
